(Mrs.) Olivia M. Rodolph,
115 President St.,
Charleston S.C.
Feb., 12, 1940.

Hello "Stormy Petrel":-

Hope you and Hubby are still quite well, and you still going as strong as the day you won the above title. Say, you can believe it or not this is a real fan's letter. I have been following with interest the sport activities of you two, every since it was my good fortune to meet you at Mrs. M. Carpentairs home in Chicago about six summers ago. Hope you will remember the little lady from Charleston and the little boy who took breakfast with you at Mrs. Cora Rollins.

Accept my congratulation on the stand you took at the "Philly" meeting. It takes real courage to hold your own against such strong men. You are a real sport. Have clipped your photo from the Afro. Its real good for a press photo. Do send me a better (or rather a real) one some day

If you and Hubby ever come this far south, stop at the above address we will be glad to have you.

A line will be appreciated,

With admiration,

Sincerly your's

Olivia Mamie Rodolph
